LOCAL NEWS.

SENATORIAL CONVENTION.—It will be seen by the notice of the County Conservative Superintendents, published in to-day's Gazette, that the Senatorial Convention for this District, is to be held in Serepta Hall, in this city, on Tuesday, the 31st of August, at 11 o'clock a. m.

MEETING OF THE CONSERVATIVE COMMITTEE.—A called meeting of the Ward Superintendents of the Conservative party was held last night, at which all the wards were fully represented.

The Chairman stated that the County Superintendents had decided to call the Senatorial Convention to meet in Alexandria on the 31st day of August.

It was resolved to hold a Convention on the 31st day of August to nominate two candidates to represent this county in the Legislature, the convention to be held immediately after the adjournment of the Senatorial convention.

After the transaction of much routine business the meeting adjourned subject to call.

The places for the ward meetings, to elect delegates to the Conventions, and the hour, will be decided upon hereafter, and due notice given.

BURNING OF A STABLE.—A frame stable, one and a-half stories in height and about 15 by 18 feet, situated on a court equidistant about 80 feet from Fayette and Queen streets, was destroyed by fire this morning, between 2 and 3 o'clock.

The stable is on the rear lot of a frame house, fronting on Queen street, occupied by John Shipple, and was rented by Wm. Recker, whose horse occupied the stable, the whole property being owned by Anthony Dugan.

About 2 o'clock this morning John Cole, who occupies a house on the same court as the stable, saw flames at the northwest corner, and hastily dressing himself, ran to the mouth of the alley and gave the alarm. The police were soon there, and the firemen came speedily, but the light wood frame of the stable was more tinder, and was half consumed before the firemen reached the spot, creating a bright glare in the sky, which gave to those at a distance the impression that the fire was quite an extensive one.

Only one engine could be used, the Columbia, for want of available water supply, yet the skill of the firemen sufficed to confine the flames to the stable, which was nearly surrounded by light frame buildings. Indeed that entire section of the town is frame for squares, and to prevent the spread of a conflagration there would seem almost impossible; yet, while there was frequent danger, and some of the houses near by caught, the firemen prevented the fire from leaving the confines of what it was the complete master before they arrived.

Mr. Recker's horse was put in the stable last night, and the door securely fastened. When the fire was discovered the door was open and the horse gone. The animal was found near the house of its owner. There seems to be no doubt that the fire was the work of an incendiary. The court is open to the street, and the building could be reached without opening a gate or scaling a fence. The loss is about $400. The stable was insured for $100 at Mr. Janney's agency.

A DARING ROBBERY.—Last evening a respectable looking man, who represented himself as a railroad conductor, applied for and obtained board at the boarding house of Mr. Wm. Humphreys, on King street, between Columbus and Washington streets. He was allowed to occupy part of the room of Mr. Samuel Jefferson. This morning at an early hour Mr. Jefferson missed his room mate, and on examining his pocket found that his pocket-book, containing $50, was also gone. Information was given at once to officer James Smith, who started towards Washington, and meeting a wagon pressed it into service, and overtook the thief on the road and arrested him. The entire sum, one $20 with some smaller notes, was found upon his person, and he confessed the theft. This morning he had a hearing before the Mayor. The man gave his name as J. A. Graves, and said he came from Indiana. He had said at the boarding house that he was from Loudoun. When the case came before the Mayor Capt. D. L. Smoot, counsel for the accused, waived a hearing, and he was committed to jail for court in default of bail.

SUPPOSED THEFT.—This morning about 12:30 o'clock, Mr. James Phillips, while attending to his business at the mail-box wharf, saw a small boat in the darkness passing the wharf, and discerned two men in it, but could not hear the sound of the oars. He at once hailed the boat, and asked what they had on board. No answer was given, and Mr. P. supposed that the boat, and perhaps an early market boat, and thought of more of the matter. Soon afterwards, however, a boat landed at the Mill dock with an immense row of oarsmen on board with some fifty dollars, which it was supposed, had been stolen from the Baltimore and Ohio barge at Shepherd's, on the other side of the river. Two men, John Meeks and John Morrissey, were arrested, charged with the theft, and the rope was brought to the police station. Superintendent Fisher, of the Midland road, was notified and sent over to Shepherd's to ascertain the ownership of the barge. At the time of the trial, however, no evidence appeared against the men, and they were dismissed.

POLICE REPORT—MAYOR'S OFFICE.—The following cases were before the Mayor to-day:

J. A. Graves, grand larceny, in stealing $50 from Samuel Jefferson. He was committed for court on the 1st of October, 1875, in default of security.

John Meeks and John Morrissey, larceny, for stealing rope valued at $20; case dismissed.

Priscilla Vass, drunk and disorderly, fined $5.

Lib Gray, assault on an officer and allowing prisoner to escape, fined $10 and sixty days in jail.

Lewis Coleman, disorderly on the street, fined $2.

Lucian Gaines, rolling a wheelbarrow on the sidewalk, fined $1.

Tobias Jones, same offence, same fine.

Ask your Druggist for Durang's Rheumatic Remedy—a sure cure for rheumatism.

NORTH ST. ASAPH STREET.—The work of improvement on North St. Asaph street is progressing. Pavements are being laid on the east sidewalks, between Queen and Princess streets, and the railroad has been lowered to the street grade. That portion of the street which has been abandoned for some time will be cleared and cleaned up next week.

STREET IMPROVEMENTS.—The grading of Wythe street, between St. Asaph and Washington, and Princess street, between Washington and Columbus, has been completed, and the lowering of the grade of St. Asaph street is being rapidly pushed forward, and will be finished in a few days.

CHRIST CHURCH—Inasmuch as the Confirmation, designed to be held at Christ Church to-morrow, is postponed, the Communion will be administered, as usual, on the first Sunday in the month. At the 9 o'clock service several adults will be baptized.

COUNTY SUPERVISORS.—The Board of Supervisors of Alexandria county, will meet at the County Court house on Monday next. The principal business will be to settle with S. B. Corbett, the accounts of V. P. Corbett, late county Treasurer.

ORGANIZATION OF THE POLICE FORCE.—The police force of this city, consisting of fifteen policemen, five readymen and two officers, were organized and sworn in by Mayor Kemper, at police headquarters, at one o'clock to-day.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

A letter has been received by a member of his family from Mr. Joseph Young, engineer of the Hydraulic Steam Fire Company, who is now in Philadelphia, in which he says that he has been paid his proportion of the funds belonging to the old members of the disbanded Volunteer Fire department of that city.

The case of Grigsby Grady, charged with an assault and battery upon Mrs. Mary Daley by knocking her down with a brickbat on Thursday last, was to-day tried before Justices Kerby and Brown, at the office of the latter, and upon a full examination of all the testimony the justices fined the defendant $5 and costs.

A very large number of our German fellow citizens, will visit Washington next week, to take part in the Schutzenfest which begins next Monday, and will last five days. The Washington ferry steamer will make a late trip on Monday night, and if sufficient encouragement is offered on other nights also.

It has been suggested that as the chain gang is now uniformed, it will be possible to dispense with the ball and chain unless in exceptional cases.

No article of dress requires as much attention as the collar. The Warwick collar is the one you should wear.

BY TELEGRAPH.

Death of Ex-President Johnson.

NASHVILLE, TENN., July 31.—The latest intelligence from Greenville, at nine o'clock last night, says that ex-President Johnson is somewhat better. The sense of feeling is partially restored to his left side. He talks intelligently, and there are some hopes for his recovery.

NASHVILLE, July 31.—It is reported that Senator Andrew Johnson died at two o'clock this morning.

NASHVILLE, July 31.—Senator Johnson is stopping nine miles from Jonesboro, in the country, which is the nearest telegraph station. The operator at that point circulated the report this morning that he died at two o'clock, but later reliable information says he was alive at four o'clock. The particulars have been telegraphed for.

CHATTANOOGA, TENN., July 31.—Andrew Johnson died at two o'clock this morning.

CHATTANOOGA, TENN., July 31.—10 a. m.—The death of Andrew Johnson at 2:30 this morning is now confirmed. He desired that his resting place be the flag of his country.

KNOXVILLE, TENN., July 31.—11:07 a. m.—Ex-President Andrew Johnson died at 2:30 o'clock this morning at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. W. R. Brown, in Carter county, East Tennessee. Mr. Johnson left Greenville for Carter county in his usual health, and on Wednesday night was stricken down with paralysis.

BRISTOL, TENN., July 31.—10:26 a. m.—Ex-President Andy Johnson died this morning at his daughter's residence, in Carter county, at two o'clock. He was attacked Wednesday evening, at four o'clock, with paralysis, and did not speak after he was attacked.

NASHVILLE, TENN., July 31.—Andrew Johnson died at half-past two o'clock this morning.

NEW YORK, July 31.—The Post, in speaking of Andrew Johnson's death, says: He was a sturdy demagogue, who had run his race. When we seek for the qualities and achievements by which to crown his memory with honor we find them not in his term as President, nor in these later years, but in his noble course through the dark and dreary winter that preceded the outbreak of the rebellion. Then, indeed, his bearing was an inspiration to fainting hopes and sinking hearts. Recalling those days, and forgetting many of the days that have followed, we can unite with his friends in laying garlands on his bier.

The Commercial Advertiser says: In his death the country loses one of her most loyal sons. The people of the country, however much they may criticize the folly of some of his acts, will give him more than this. They will give tears for the loss of a man who was always brave to stand fast by his convictions, and in his grave they will place garlands of patriotism that was often tested and always found true.

The Express says: Never abusing a trust, he has adorned each successive position that he has filled. In his life he was a true patriot.

Death of Gen. G. E. Pickett.

RICHMOND, July 31.—Gen. Geo. E. Pickett, one of the most famous of the Confederate generals, died in Norfolk, last night, at the hospital of St. Vincent de Paul, where he had been removed from the hotel to receive better attention. His wife and family physician were in constant attendance upon him. Gen. P. was a resident of this city, and has, for several years past, represented several insurance companies. His remains will be brought here for interment.

Foreign News.

LONDON, July 31.—Monday next is bank holiday and the Stock Exchange and Mining Lane will be closed. The cotton market and all other Liverpool markets will also be closed. The Times of this morning in its financial article says it believes arrangements are in contemplation which will result in the payment of Duncun, Sherman & Co.'s circular notes in the hands of travellers.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 31.—A fire broke out on Thursday in the town of Briansk, Government of Orsk, and raged all day, when it was extinguished by rain. Two thirds of the place was destroyed. The inhabitants became panic stricken during the conflagration and fled to the fields for safety. Briansk comprised a population of 13,000.

BELFAST, July 31.—The Broadwood weaving factory, in this city, was destroyed by fire to-day. The damage is estimated at 750,000 dollars. Seven hundred persons are thrown out of employment by the fire.

STUTTGART, July 31.—The Emperor William has telegraphed from Gastun that he will contribute a prize of honor to be competed for in the German National Match which is to take place here next week.

BERLIN, July 31.—Dr. Von Schwitzer, leader of the social Democrats, is dead.

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 31.—The Levant Herald states that the Government has authorized the circulation of the Bible in Turkey.

New York Items.

NEW YORK, July 31.—The report circulated yesterday that several theatrical people are heavy losers by the failure of Duncun, Sherman & Co., proves to be without foundation, in many instances, and letters have been received from John T. Raymond, Jno. Brougham and Wm. Wheatly, denying that they are losers.

The Sun says: Augustus Storrs, Treasurer of Plymouth Church, has paid to Henry Ward Beecher $30,000 as the first instalment of the $100,000 salary. Two secret meetings of the board of trustees have been held within the past three weeks, and there has been very much difference of opinion as to how the remaining $70,000 shall be raised. The amount paid to Beecher was the surplus that the pew rents netted at the sale in January, and covers his regular $20,000 salary.

The Times says: It is somewhat authoritatively stated that the officials of Plymouth Church intend to raise the $80,000 additional salary voted to Beecher by a mortgage on the Bethel. A fund is now being raised by the members of Plymouth Church for the benefit of Miss Bessie Turner.

Schmale & Froweller, the extensive lager beer brewers at Marion, N. J., failed for about $75,000.

Killed by a Policeman.

BALTIMORE, July 31.—Daniel Brown, colored, was shot and instantly killed this morning by Policeman Philip McDonald, at a negro ball in the Northwestern District. It is said the policeman entered the room to quiet the noisy proceedings, when the door was locked on him, and Brown, a stalwart man, approached him in a threatening manner, for which he forfeited his life. The policeman of this city have been using pistols very freely of late.

Attempt to Wreck a Train.

GREAT FALLS, N. H., July 31.—An attempt was made on Thursday evening to throw the North Conway express train from the track, between Conway and North Conway, by a log placed across the rails. The train was moving quite rapidly, and though the front part of the engine was badly smashed the train did not leave the track. No one was injured. There is no clue to the perpetrators of the outrage.

Tweed.

NEW YORK, July 31.—Judge Barrett rendered a decision to-day on the motion to vacate the order of arrest in the suit against Tweed for $6,000,000, or reduce the bail from $3,000,000 to a reasonable amount. He declines to vacate the order of arrest, and declines to reduce the bail and denies the motion with ten dollars costs.

Strike.

FALL RIVER, July 31.—At the spinner's meeting last night, it was voted to strike in three of the mills. This proceeding will without doubt cause a general "lockout." It is now believed that the cord grinders and weavers, who hold meetings this evening, will vote themselves 30 days' vacation.

Bank Statement.

NEW YORK, July 31.—The weekly Bank statement is as follows:

Loans, increase.....	$1,358,500
Specie, decrease.....	1,785,200
Legal tenders, increase.....	618,500
Deposits, decrease.....	34,300
Reserve, decrease.....	997,775

Fires.

KENNEBUNK, ME., July 31.—The loss by the burning of Perkins & Crawford's, steam mill at Kennebunkport, yesterday, is $35,000.

FORT SCOTT, KANSAS, July 31.—A block of buildings, was burned at Parsons yesterday. Loss $25,000.

Financial.

NEW YORK, July 31.—The winding financial article says: There is nothing of universal interest in Wall street to-day. Stocks were strong at the opening, but soon became heavy, and after 11 o'clock were vigorously depressed.

Failure.

NEW YORK, July 31.—C. C. Helton and H. J. Bogert, two brokers, who went short of stocks on Duncun, Sherman & Co.'s failure and failed to cover in time, suspended yesterday.

Dead.

WILMINGTON, DEL., July 31.—Mrs. Righter, aged 35, died to-day from the effect of burns received by her clothes taking fire accidentally last night.

Weather Probabilities.

WASHINGTON, July 31 11 a. m. For the Middle States, rising barometer, and lower temperature than on Friday, with north to east winds, partly cloudy weather, and in the southern and western portions rain areas.

The Markets.
